Gospel

John 17:11b-19

Have you ever been present when a grandparent or other relative knew that he or she was in the process of dying? At such times, people often pray for those they are leaving behind and express their love for them. That's what Jesus did at the Last Supper. He knew that his friends would be full of fear and grief at his death. He also knew that they would be threatened by many evil forces in the world.

Jesus prayed to the Father to guard his friends and keep them in his name. He prayed that the Christian community would be one, just as he and the Father are one.

Jesus says that his friends "do not belong to the world." What do you think he means by that? What are some of the forms of evil in the world that threaten Jesus' followers today? How are we called to respond to evil?
