Gospel John 20:19-23

Some events are so life-changing that we have to keep going back to them in memory to grasp their true meaning. That's how it was with the gospel writers and the resurrection of Jesus. In this reading, John recalls the evening of the first Easter. Jesus appears in the midst of the disciples and gives them his peace. He breathes on them and gives them the breath of the Holy Spirit so that they have the power to forgive sins.

As we know from the first reading, the Spirit would be experienced again as fire and a mighty wind at Pentecost. But whatever form the Spirit takes, his gifts are intended to bring unity and peace to the Body of Christ.

How would you complete this statement: "To me, peace means...."
Describe times when you have experienced peace. When Jesus says "Peace be with you," what do you think he has in mind? Why is the power to forgive sins so important in the Christian community? What examples have you seen in your family or your parish of people sharing the peace of Christ?

If you are unable to attend Mass, you can stay current on events by going to our online bulletins at <http://williamsburg.cdlex.org/bulletins>

Act now to get involved! Your gifts and pledges are greatly appreciated by all those served through your generous support of the Diocesan Annual Appeal. Please continue your prayer for the outreach and mission needs within our community. Contact the Parish Office today if you have not submitted your Diocesan Annual Appeal pledge information.

Many thanks to all who assisted with the food distribution on May 18th. We provided food to 165 families.

Ruth Arnold, grandmother of Steven Jeffers, passed away on Friday, May 22, 2015. May God grant her eternal peace. Please keep the family in your prayers.
