Gospel Reflection

If you and a partner were sent to several different schools to talk about your faith, what worries might you have? When Jesus sent his apostles out two by two, he warned them that some people would not welcome them. He insisted that they take to the road without food or money, trusting in God and the goodness of their hosts. If people would not provide for them or listen to their message, they were to move on to the next place. But those who accepted the apostles were rewarded. The sick were healed, the possessed were freed of demons, and sinners were reconciled."

Jesus sent his apostles forth as missionaries without backpacks but not without training. They had learned from his word and example what they were to teach. What kinds of training have you been given at home, at school, or in the community? How have you shared the training you received? If you were asked to teach younger children a faith lesson, what kinds of materials might you want to take with you?

If you had been one of the Twelve, what would your response to being sent out almost empty-handed have been? Give one example of how you have already participated in Jesus' ministry of teaching or healing. What prayer or practice might help you to grow in trusting God to work through you?

Please keep Sarah Macon (daughter of Marian Collette and Dal Macon) and her daughter, Ruth, in your prayers. They were injured earlier this week in a four-wheeler accident.

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports Catholic organizations that provide affordable shelter and train seminarians in a region that still struggles from the effects of Soviet rule. By providing pastoral care, catechesis, and funding for building renovations, your donations help to restore the Church and build the future in the region. Please give generously to the collection next week. Visit www.usccb.org (search "Church in Central and Eastern Europe") to learn more.

Act now to get involved! Your gifts and pledges are greatly appreciated by all those served through your generous support of the Diocesan Annual Appeal. Please continue your prayer for the outreach and mission needs within our community. Contact the Parish Office today if you have not submitted your Diocesan Annual Appeal pledge information.

If you are unable to attend Mass, you can stay current by going to our online bulletins at <http://williamsburg.cdlex.org/bulletins>
