Gospel Reflection

Matthew 5:1-12a

This reading from the Gospel of Matthew contains the Beatitudes. These statements are a summary of the way to sainthood for all the thousands and thousands of people who have followed Jesus faithfully. They show how the followers of Jesus today are to live for God's kingdom. All the rewards promised here will have their fulfillment in God's kingdom in heaven. Jesus calls us all to holiness. By following the teachings of Jesus and the Church, celebrating the sacraments, and trusting in the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the way to heaven lies open for us. Our journey of faith may not be an easy one. There will be many hardships and challenges along the way. But if we walk humbly with our God, we will one day reach the place of justice and peace where God reigns forever.

The Beatitudes show us that God knows about all the suffering and pain in the world. They also show us how God wants us to respond to it: with mercy, with peacemaking, with a hunger and thirst for holiness (right living and justice). The Beatitudes give us a hint of what we pray for when we pray "Your kingdom come." The Beatitudes are not just for the saints of long ago. They are for us today.

How will you show mercy today? How will you make peace? What makes you sad or happy? (Are you too centered on your own life and unconcerned about bigger problems in the world?) Choose a beatitude and tell one way you could put it into action this week.

Suggestion: Make a list of famous people living today. Research their lives. See what they are doing to help make this a better world. (You may be surprised. Some famous people work quietly for others behind the scenes.) What would you do to make this a better world? How can you start now?

Heavenly Father,

Please hold me close at this time of uncertainty.

Remind me of your promises when I am feeling overwhelmed.

Whisper words of love when I feel alone.

Lie me down in peace when I am weary.

Give all who care for me great waves of wisdom.

Lead me through this journey singing songs of hope over my life.

Quiet my soul as I face the surgery and treatment of this breast cancer.

Come quell the fears that I have, and fill my heart and mind with your everlasting love.

Amen.
