Gospel Reflection

Luke 3: 1-6

Why do you suppose Luke makes such an effort to pin down the historical timing of the preaching of John the Baptist? He gives us a complete rundown of Roman and Jewish leaders who were in power. Luke wants us to realize that John, a "common man" chosen by God, is much more important than any worldly ruler, because he is the herald who announces the Lord's coming. John urges the people to be baptized as a sign of their repentance for their sins. When they do this, they will make the path clear for Christ to come into their lives. Then all people "shall see the salvation of God."

Have you ever cleared a path with a shovel or even your bare hands—perhaps through snow, or through a dense undergrowth of vines or weeds? It's hard work! This is what John is asking us to do—to clear a path in our lives to welcome Christ. Is there a path in your life that might take some heavy lifting or some cutting back of things that "catch you up"? How will you clear your path to Christ? Maybe, because of help from family, teachers, parish, and friends, you have a smooth path toward Christ ahead of you. If so, how will you thank God? How can you help others clear their paths? How can the Sacrament of Reconciliation help you in your work of path-clearing? Advent is a beautiful time to celebrate this sacrament.

Second collection next week! Support elderly religious. A parishioner writes, "As a Catholic school student from K-12, I was formed to be the person I am by many religious brothers and sisters, and I am forever grateful." Show your appreciation for the senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests who made a positive difference in so many lives. Please give generously to next week's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious.
