Gospel Reflection

Luke 10:38-42

A guest shows up, probably unexpectedly, and the hostess, Martha, knocks herself out trying to do everything at once. The guest, Jesus, sits down and makes himself at home. The sister of the hostess, Mary, sits with Jesus, and listens thoughtfully. When Martha complains that she is doing all the work, Jesus tells her that she has forgotten the most important thing. She has neglected to listen to Jesus, whose words are more nourishing than any meal.

Most of our lives are a combination of Martha and Mary. (Even cloistered monks and nuns, devoted to lives of prayer, have hours of work every day.) However, if our lives are all-Martha-all-the-time, they may be out of balance. We may be missing "the better part." (There is an ironic joke that goes: "At the time of death, no one says, 'I wish I had spent more time at the office.'")

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in its discussion of observing Sunday as a day of worship and rest, declares, "Traditional activities (sports, restaurants, etc.) and social necessities (public services, etc.) require some people to work on Sundays, but everyone should still take care to set aside sufficient time for leisure" (Catechism, 2187). Most people in our country are working more hours a week than ever before. How does this affect their families, their children? What is the responsibility in this area for Catholic supervisors and managers? How can we put more Mary-like listening into our lives? When do we make time to listen to our families? our friends? When do we make time to listen to Jesus?

On September 4, 2016, Blessed Mother Teresa becomes Saint Teresa of Calcutta, as the Church celebrates her profound legacy and declares with joy her sainthood before the world. Together with the entire Church, we will celebrate the canonization of Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

Hearing the voice of God while traveling from Calcutta to Darjeeling, Mother Teresa was moved to reach out to Calcutta's poorest citizens. Her ministry blossomed into the formation of the Missionaries of Charity who operate today in countries around the world. Mother Teresa's tireless efforts on behalf of God's most vulnerable children made her the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize laureate and an example for millions worldwide devoted to the struggle for human life and dignity.

Mother Teresa of Calcutta,

On the train to Darjeeling

You heard what so many human hearts long to hear:

The voice of God.

Through the seed of his Word

You built a movement the world has rarely seen

And so long for

A movement of mercy

A movement of compassion

A movement of hope shining in the darkest places.

And in each of your Sisters' chapels around the world

There hangs a crucifix:

The suffering, dying Christ

And the words, "I thirst."

These words, a call to action.

We gaze upon your example

Walking off the safe path

To risk all in doing the will of the Lord

For the poorest of the poor.

And we hear the agonizing cry of the one who called upon you: "I thirst."

Have we too not heard the voice of God?

Mother Teresa, you know our hearts

Crying for the one who cries for us.

And as we respond to this cry

In our prayers and in our works,

We ask your intercession:

Mother Teresa of Calcutta, pray for us.

Amen
