Gospel Reflection

Luke 14:1, 7-14

We come to the wedding banquet of heaven by way of humility and charity. This is the fatherly instruction we hear in today's First Reading, and the message of today's Gospel. Jesus is not talking simply about good table manners. He is revealing the way of the kingdom, in which the one who would be greatest would be the servant of all (see Luke 22:24-27).

This is the way He showed us, humbling Himself to come among us as a man (see Philippians 2:5-8), as one who serves, as the bearer of glad tidings to the poor (see Luke 4:18). This is the way, too, that the Father has shown us down through the ages-filling the hungry, sending the rich away empty, lifting up the lowly, pulling down the proud-(see-Luke 1:52-53)

We again call to mind the Exodus in today's Psalm-how in His goodness the Lord led the Israelites from imprisonment to prosperity, rained down bread from heaven, made them His inheritance, becoming a "Father of orphans."

We now too have gained a share of His inheritance. We are to live humbly, knowing we are not worthy to receive from His table (see Luke 6:7; 15:21). We are to give alms, remembering we were ransomed from sin by the price of His blood (see 1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

The Lord promises that if we are humble we will be exalted and find favor with God; that if we are kind to those who can never repay us, we will atone for sins, and find blessing in the resurrection of the righteous.

We anticipate the fulfillment of those promises in every Eucharist, today's Epistle tells us. In the Mass, we enter the festal gathering of the angels and the firstborn children of God, the liturgy of the heavenly Jerusalem in which Jesus is the high priest, the King who calls us to come up higher (see Proverbs 25:6-7).

If you wish to have a Mass said for a loved one, please talk with Father Jesu or contact the office. The stipend is $5.00.

The Shop and Share Event, which benefits Cumberland Valley Domestic Violence Services located in London, will take place on Saturday, October 1, 2016. The shelter serves 8 counties including Whitley, and it is always in need of donations. Volunteers are requested to sit at a table at the entrance of Wal-Mart and hand out a flyer to shoppers of the shelter's most urgent needed items. When shoppers come out, volunteers need to keep count of the items and money donated. The table will be set up all day from approximately 8AM until 10PM. A short meeting concerning this event will be held today in the OLPH Parish Hall immediately after Mass.
