SECOND COLLECTION TODAY: Today's second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty to the United States by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With the tradition of improving education, housing situations and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact to communities nationwide. Your contribution will defend human dignity and reach out to those living on the margins. Please give to the CCHD Collection.

The First Communion class is planning a service project for their meeting on December 6th. We'll be putting together "Blessing Bags": ziploc bags you keep in your car, filled with items to give to any person in need during the holiday season. The bags include things like non-perishable snacks, hygiene items, and other items. Our goal is to pack 20 blessing bags. We will invite parishioners to take one (or more) the following Sunday so they might have them on hand to give as needed during their holiday travels. Any help in providing items for the bags would be greatly appreciated.

Some of the items we need are:

gallon-sized Ziploc bags

small water bottles

chapsticks

travel-sized first aid kits

baby wipes

hand warmers

hair ties

new socks

inexpensive gloves

Individual serving-sized non-perishable food items

individual tea and on-the-go coffee mixes

gum/hard candy/mints

If you have enough shopping to do, we would also be happy to take monetary donations. Please drop off any donations in the hall by Sunday December 4th. All children in the parish are invited to join our class on December 6th to help pack the bags. Thanks and God Bless!

Gospel Reflection

Luke 23:35-43

Week by week the Liturgy has been preparing us for the revelation to be made on this, the last Sunday of the Church year.

Jesus, we have been shown, is truly the Chosen One, the Messiah of God, the King of Jews. Ironically, in today's Gospel we hear these names on the lips of those who don't believe in Him—Israel's rulers, the soldiers, a criminal dying alongside Him.

They can only see the scandal of a bloodied figure nailed to a cross. They scorn Him in words and gestures foretold in Israel's Scriptures. If He is truly King, God will rescue Him, they taunt. But He did not come to save Himself, but to save them—and us.

The good thief shows us how we are to accept the salvation He offers us. He confesses his sins, acknowledges he deserves to die for them. And He calls on the name of Jesus, seeks His mercy and forgiveness. By his faith he is saved. Jesus "remembers" him—as God has always remembered His people, visiting them with His saving deeds, numbering them among His chosen heirs.

By the blood of His cross, Jesus reveals His Kingship—not in saving His life, but in offering it as a ransom for ours. He transfers us to "the Kingdom of His beloved Son," as today's Epistle tells us. His Kingdom is the Church, the new Jerusalem and House of David that we sing of in today's Psalm.

By their covenant with David in today's First Reading, Israel's tribes are made one "bone and flesh" with their king. By the new covenant made in His blood, Christ becomes one flesh with the people of His Kingdom—the head of His body, the Church. We celebrate and renew this covenant in every Eucharist, giving thanks for our redemption, hoping for the day when we too will be with Him in Paradise.
