Please complete the information sheet found in the pew and return it at the end of Mass today.

Thank you for your generous donations to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). Your contribution will defend human dignity and reach out to those living on the margins.

The First Communion class is planning a service project for their meeting on December 6th. We'll be putting together "Blessing Bags": ziploc bags you keep in your car, filled with items to give to any person in need during the holiday season. The bags include things like non-perishable snacks, hygiene items, and other items. Our goal is to pack 20 blessing bags. We will invite parishioners to take one (or more) the following Sunday so they might have them on hand to give as needed during their holiday travels. Any help in providing items for the bags would be greatly appreciated.

Some of the items we need are:

- gallon-sized Ziploc bags
- small water bottles
- chapsticks
- travel-sized first aid kits
- baby wipes
- hand warmers
- hair ties
- new socks
- inexpensive gloves
- Individual serving-sized non-perishable food items
- individual tea and on-the-go coffee mixes
- gum/hard candy/mints

If you have enough shopping to do, we would also be happy to take monetary donations. Please drop off any donations in the hall by Sunday December 4th. All children in the parish are invited to join our class on December 6th to help pack the bags. Thanks and God Bless! For any questions please email me at erica.pearson.olph@gmail.com.

Gospel Reflection

Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus exaggerates in today's Gospel when He claims not to know the day or the hour when He will come again. He occasionally makes such overstatements to drive home a point we might otherwise miss.

His point here is that the exact "hour" is not important. What is crucial is that we not postpone our repentance, that we be ready for Him—spiritually and morally—when He comes. For He will surely come, He tells us—like a thief in the night, like the flood in the time of Noah.

In today's Epistle, Paul too compares the present age to a time of advancing darkness and night. Though we sit in the darkness, overshadowed by death, we have seen arise the great light of our Lord who has come into our midst. He is the true light, the life of the world. His light continues to shine in His Church, the new Jerusalem promised by Isaiah in today's First Reading.

In the Church, all nations stream to the God of Jacob, to worship and seek wisdom in the House of David. From the Church goes forth His word of instruction, the light of the Lord—that all might walk in His paths toward that eternal day when night will be no more.

By our Baptism we have been made children of the light and day. It is time we start living like it—throwing off the fruitless works of darkness, the desires of the flesh, and walking by the light of His grace.

The hour is late as we begin a new Advent. Let us begin again in this Eucharist. Let us go rejoicing to the House of the Lord. Let us give thanks to His name, keeping watch for His coming, knowing that our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.
