Gospel Reflection John 10:11-18

When Jesus wanted to describe himself, he did not compare himself to a magnificent king or a powerful ruler. He said, "I am the good shepherd." And the people of his time knew immediately that he was speaking of a humble caretaker of the flock that depended on him for survival. Some shepherds work only for pay and leave their sheep unprotected. The good shepherd lays down his life to save them. No one forces him to do so. He chooses to give his life for the sheep he knows by name and loves to the end.

The Good Shepherd looks forward to the day when all people will "be one flock." They will recognize his voice and be gathered into his fold.

In ancient Israel, a good shepherd was admired for his courage, dedication, and ability to provide everything his flock required. Who do you think might be considered good shepherds in today's world? Why? In what ways do you see Jesus as the Good Shepherd?

How are the followers of Jesus called to "shepherd" others who may be lost or afraid, weak or without guidance?
