Gospel Reflection

In this Gospel passage Jesus presents two images for the Kingdom of God. One is the seed which is scattered on the land. But the one who scattered the seed does nothing further to ensure growth; yet it grows. The second image is the mustard seed which is tiny but somehow it becomes the largest plant with room in its branches for the birds to find shade. The Kingdom of God is never what we might expect; it does not follow "the rules" that society may have. People who live by Kingdom values do not follow society's ways. We are to be countercultural as Jesus was: embracing the outcast, proclaiming God's love for all, offering healing and reconciliation. And always we are given the grace to act as his disciples.

What do you think Jesus wanted to teach the disciples about the Kingdom of God? Which of the two images speaks best to you? How would you explain the Kingdom of God to someone who asks about it?

If you are unable to attend Mass, you can stay current by going to our online bulletins at <http://williamsburg.cdlex.org/bulletins>
