Gospel Reflection

What a sad day it would be if some of our friends suddenly turned against us because of our religious beliefs. Today's gospel story relates how many of Jesus' disciples left him. They could not accept his teaching that he himself was the Bread of Life. They could not believe that his Body and Blood were the source of eternal life. So they turned their backs on him and returned to their old way of life.

However, when Jesus asked the Twelve if they too would abandon him, Peter replied, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." We too at times may find some of Jesus' teachings difficult. When that happens, we speak to him honestly in prayer and seek his help.

What disagreements, if any, about religious beliefs, have you ever had with your friends? Why is it sometimes difficult to practice our religious beliefs when others do not share them? How would you describe the way Jesus responds to the disciples who turn away from him? How does he show how important his teaching on the Eucharist is? What teachings of Jesus have you had difficulties with at times? Who or what helped you to work out those difficulties? How would you describe Peter's answer to Jesus' question about leaving him? Name one way people your age can show the kind of faith in Jesus expressed by Peter.

Please keep Charlotte Fichter in your prayers. She underwent surgery on Tuesday and is now recovering at home.
