Gospel Reflection

Mark 8:27-35

How would you describe the friends of the deaf man? Why do you think

In this reading, Jesus teaches his disciples what they have gradually come to discover: He is indeed the Messiah. But he is a Messiah who must suffer and die.

Peter found this hard to accept. For Peter, the Messiah would not, could not, suffer. Judging by human standards, not God's, Peter failed to accept God's will for the Messiah. Jesus assured all his disciples that they, too, must suffer: deny themselves, take up the cross, and follow him.

You may wish to have the group respond to these questions in writing.

Why do people reject other people? Have you ever been rejected for doing what was right or for "not going along with the crowd"? (Remember: God created each of us as unique persons. The person who rejects knowing you is the real loser! He or she is missing a unique creation of God!)

What "crosses" do you have to "take up" in your life right now? Will you ask Jesus to help you?

There will be a Deanery Meeting at St. Boniface on Tuesday, September 15, at 10:30 a.m.

There will be a second collection next weekend for the Formation of Ordained and Lay Ministers – please be generous.

Father Jesu's Superior will be arriving in Nashville this weekend, where Father will be picking him up and taking him to meet with Bishop John. Please pray for safe travel.
