Gospel Reflection

Mark 10: 17-27

This Week's Schedule

The rich young man in this story is like a mountain climber who has almost reached the summit. But the final stretch will be more difficult than the distance he has already come. He comes to seek wisdom from Jesus about how to achieve everlasting life. He assures the Good Teacher that he has kept the commandments since he was a child. Jesus looks at him with love and challenges him to do one thing more. If he wants to reach the summit of treasure in heaven, the young man must sell his possessions and follow Jesus. This he cannot do. So he goes away sad.

Jesus assures his disciples that entering the kingdom of God is no easy matter. Those who are attached to their possessions will have a more difficult time. However, those who rely on God to achieve the impossible can do all good things.

Look back at this gospel story. Place yourself in the sandals of the rich young man. When you approach Jesus, what are you expecting? When you tell him about how you have kept the commandments, what are you hoping he will say? Why do you think Jesus looks at you with love? What is your reaction to the one thing more Jesus says you must do? What are you telling yourself as you go away sad? Might you feel differently later on? Why? In what ways do you already share or give away some of your possessions? What message is Jesus giving us about our attitudes towards riches? Do you think this gospel story has a happy ending? Why?

 Student Mass Next Sunday (18th) at 5:00 ***
 Followed by Dinner in the Parish Hall

Next weekend, there will be a second collection for World Mission Sunday. During the month of October, we are called to remember in a special way the great needs of the Church and her life-giving service in mission countries. World Mission Sunday is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through fasting, prayer and sacrifice.

The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7th. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful. We will be praying the Rosary each Sunday at 8:45 prior to Mass.
