Gospel Reflection Luke 7:11-17

It is easy to see the continuity of themes among the readings and the Gospel. Jesus, like Elijah and Paul, is also journeying. And, like Elijah, Jesus encounters a widow whose only son has died. This son is already in a coffin and is being carried out for burial. We can only imagine the depth of the widow's grief. She is not begging Jesus to do something—it is not clear that she even notices him, she is focused only on her loss. It is Jesus who notices her. "He was moved with pity for her." Did he somehow see in her his own mother? Did he realize that Mary's only Son would die too? Was it his love for his own mother that made him see other women and their pain more clearly? He stops the funeral procession and touches the coffin and tells the dead man to rise. And he does! Now the people around him recognize Jesus as a great prophet. There is nothing like a miracle to lead the crowd to glorify God. It is a happy ending to this Gospel story, but of course, it will not last. The crowd is fickle and perhaps some who witnessed this miracle were among those who called for Jesus' death.

Do you ever notice how many widow stories are in Scripture? Why do you think they appear so frequently? How does our community care for widows, widowers, those who experience the death of a child? What sights move you to the kind of pity that Jesus felt when he saw the grieving mother? What do you do when you are moved with pity? The crowd glorified God when the dead man was raised to life. When do you glorify God? Have you too witnessed miracles?

Newly ordained Priest Terrence de Silva will be visiting with us on June 19, 2016, and presiding at Mass.

Prayer after Communion

Stay with me Lord, for it is necessary to have You present so that I do not forget You. You know how easily I abandon you.

Stay with me Lord, because I am so weak and I need Your strength, so that I may not fall so often.

Stay with me Lord, for You are my life, and without You, I am without fervor.

Stay with me Lord, for You are my light, and without You, I am in darkness.

Stay with me Lord, to show me Your Will.

Stay with me Lord, so that I hear Your voice and follow You.

Stay with me Lord, for I desire to love You very much, and always be in Your company.

Stay with me Lord, if You wish me to be faithful to You.

Stay with me Lord, for as poor as my soul is, I want to be a place of consolation for You, a nest of Love.

Amen
