Gospel

Matthew 5:17–37

Jesus tells us in the Gospel this week that he has come not to abolish but to “fulfill” the Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets.

His Gospel reveals the deeper meaning and purpose of the Ten Commandments and the moral Law of the Old Testament. But his Gospel also transcends the Law. He demands a morality far greater than that accomplished by the most pious of Jews, the scribes and Pharisees.

Outward observance of the Law is not enough. It is not enough that we do not murder, commit adultery, divorce, or lie.

The law of the new covenant is a law that God writes on the heart. The heart is the seat of our motivations, the place from which our words and actions proceed.

Jesus this week calls us to train our hearts, to master our passions and emotions. And Jesus demands the full obedience of our hearts. He calls us to love God with all our hearts, and to do his will from the heart.

God never asks more of us than we are capable. That is the message of this week’s First Reading. It is up to us to choose life over death, to choose the waters of eternal life over the fires of ungodliness and sin.

By his life, death, and resurrection, Jesus has shown us that it is possible to keep his commandments. In baptism, he has given us his Spirit that his Law might be fulfilled in us..

The wisdom of the Gospel surpasses all the wisdom of this age that is passing away, St. Paul tells us in the Epistle. The revelation of this wisdom fulfills God’s plan from before all ages. Let us trust in this wisdom, and live by his Kingdom law.

As we do in this week’s Psalm, let us pray that we grow in being better able to live his Gospel, and to seek the Father with all our heart.

UPCOMING SAINTS AND FEASTS

Saints Cyril, Monk, and Methodius, Bishop ~ Memorial
February 14

The Seven Holy Founders of the Servite Order
February 17

Lector training is scheduled for Sunday, February 19, at 10:30 a.m., in the Church. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, please contact Joe McNaughton or simply attend the training session. All are welcome.

Accepting applications: Two groups will be visiting our Parish this Spring. If you know of someone who needs assistance at their residence (painting, plumbing, repairs, etc), please have them contact the office at 549-2156 or Crystal at 606-560-3077.

If you have Palms from last year, please return them to the Church by February 26 so they may be used for Ash Wednesday.

Second Collection next week: The collection for the National Black and Indian Missions will be taken up in our diocese on February 18-19, 2017. This collection helps support a wide variety of evangelization and educational efforts throughout the United States, including our own diocese. The Diocese of Lexington receives an annual grant from this collection to support multi-cultural efforts, to provide funding for speakers, conferences and trainings, and to purchase special resource materials for use throughout the Diocese. Please be generous and help support the good work of the NBIM.

Tips for Getting More Out of Mass ~ Week 3

Participate Fully

- Sing, even if your voice is bad.
- Respond and pray with gusto. Give it all to God and don't worry about others.
- Remember that during Mass isn't socializing time.
- Offer your pain, sufferings, joys and prayers to God.

Mass Etiquette ~ Week 3

Don't sit on the edge of the pew if you sit down before others. Rather, sit in the middle so others don't have to climb over you.

When we enter and leave Church, genuflect toward the Tabernacle. Christ is present for our sake. By allowing our right knee to hit the floor, we acknowledge He is our Lord and God. If someone is physically unable to genuflect, then a bow is sufficient. During Mass, if you pass in front of the altar or tabernacle, bow reverently.

Please be quiet while in church. Once you enter the sanctuary – it is not the time or place to visit with those around you. If you must talk do so as quietly and briefly as possible. Remember that your conversation might be disturbing someone who is in prayer, which is much more important.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Pray to end Abortion, Russell Brooks, Cassie & Clifton Centers, Bea Brown, Maere Tekanene, Bill Moses, Charlotte Fichter, David Wright, Jerry Roberts, Donna Blevins, Norma Wilson, Giorgia (niece of Norma), Alisa Moses, Roselyn Bixby, Ms. Faye, John Coe, Linda Vore and Mattie Erion.
